The annual fee for participation in the Account (the “Program Fee”) shall be a percentage (%) of the market value of the Assets under management in accordance with the fee schedule set forth in “Exhibit A”. The Program Fee shall be prorated and paid quarterly, in advance, based upon the market value of the Assets on the last business day of the previous calendar quarter. All market values are calculated by the independent custodian. No increase in the Program Fee shall be effective without prior written notification by the Client.

Client hereby authorizes Kovack Advisors and the independent custodian of the assets to charge the Account for the amount of the Program Fee and to remit such fee to the applicable securities broker/dealer (Kovack Securities, Inc., etc.) if necessary, in accordance with required SEC procedures. Specifically, the fee will be payable in advance on January 1st, April 1st, July 1st, & October 1st in any calendar year. Fees shall be paid via

Other securities or investments in the account(s) will be valued in a manner determined in good faith by the Account custodian to reflect fair market value. Interest on any margin debt incurred by Client is in addition to the account(s) fee.

The independent custodian may charge transaction fees associated with liquidating securities. The Client should speak with his/her/their Investment Advisor Representative for how potentially to avoid these fees. No portion of the Program Fee shall be based on capital gains or capital appreciation of the Assets except as provided for under the Investment Advisors Act of 1940.

Kovack Advisors will not receive any performance bonuses. However, Client understands that Account assets may be invested in shares of mutual funds which may be subject to additional fees and expenses as identified within the fund prospectus. There may be additional transaction costs on certain security types. The Client is encouraged to speak with his/her/their Investment Advisor Representative for more information

Payment of the fee will be reflected on Client's statement(s). Accounts that belong to the same household may be grouped for the purpose of determining account fees. Account Fees do not include any fees for products and services that are not part of the account(s). To the extent that Client utilizes such products or services, Kovack Advisors, KSI, its affiliates, and its employees may receive additional compensation.

4. Tax Considerations

Client recognizes that dividends, capital gains, transfers and sales of mutual funds may create a taxable event for them unless their account is a qualified retirement account. Kovack Advisors does not offer legal or tax advice and it is the Client's responsibility to consult with a legal or tax advisor as the Client sees fit.

5. Custodial Arrangements

Custody of Client's assets will be maintained on a fully disclosed basis through KSI with an independent custodian established by the Client. If the Account contains only a portion of the Client's total assets, Kovack Advisors shall only be responsible for those assets that the Client has designated to be the subject of Kovack Advisors' investment management services under this Agreement without consideration to those additional assets not so designated by the Client.

10. Reports

Upon the termination of the Agreement, Kovack Advisors will have no obligation to recommend or take any action with regard to the securities, cash or other investments in the Account.

12. Assignment

This Agreement may not be assigned (within the meaning of the Investment Advisors Act of 1940) by the Client without the prior written consent of Kovack Advisors. The Client acknowledges and agrees that transactions that do not result in a change of actual control or management of Kovack Advisors shall not be considered an assignment pursuant to Rule 202(a)(1)-1 under the Advisors Act. 14. Death or Disability

- a) All parties to this agreement are giving up the right to sue each other in court, including the right to a trial by jury, except as provided by the rules of the arbitration forum in which a claim is filed.
- b) Arbitration awards are generally final and binding; a party's ability to have a court reverse or modify an arbitration award is very limited.
- c) The ability of the parties to obtain documents, witness statements and other discovery is generally more limited in arbitration than in court proceedings.
- d) The arbitrators do not have to explain the reason(s) for their award.
- e) The panel of arbitrators will typically include a minority of arbitrators who were or are affiliated with the securities industry.
- f) The rules of some arbitration forums may impose time limits for bringing a claim in arbitration. In some cases, a claim that is ineligible for arbitration may be brought in court.

All controversies that may arise between us (including, but not limited to controversies concerning any account, order or transaction, or the continuation, performance, interpretation or breach of this or any other agreement between us, whether entered into or arising before, on or after the date this account is opened) shall be determined by arbitration in accordance with the rules then prevailing of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). 17. Severability

Any term or provision of this Agreement which is invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability without rendering invalid or unenforceable the remaining terms or provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of any of the terms or provisions of this Agreement in any other jurisdiction.

18. Client Conflicts

If this Agreement is between Kovack Advisors and related Clients (i.e. husband and wife, etc.), Kovack Advisors’ services shall be based upon the joint goals communicated to Kovack Advisors. Kovack Advisors shall be permitted to rely upon instructions from either party with respect to disposition of the Assets or the Account, unless and until such reliance is revoked in writing to Kovack Advisors.

Kovack Advisors shall not be responsible for any claims or damages resulting from such reliance or from any change in the status of the relationship between the Clients.

19. Referral Fees
